Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair and slightly cooler to night. Tuesday fair; fresh northeasterly winds.

The Alleged Assault.

Alexandria county authorities and Warden Harris, of the District of Columbia jail, clashed yesterday afternoon at the jail in an argument as to whether Joseph Wright, colored, identified by Miss Mabel Ristey, and her escort, Forrest Gooding, as the man who assaulted and robbed them on the night of September 9, near Four Mile Run, should sign a statement made by him to Sheriff Palmer and Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey, of Alexandria county.

The men from Virginia insisted that their request be granted, but Warden Harris refused on the ground that he would be doing an injustice to the prisoner under his charge. He maintained his position and Mr. Mackey and Sheriff Palmer left the jail to return home. The warden asserted that the prisoner had had no opportunity to see a lawyer.

Mr. Mackey in his colloquy with Warden Harris said he had tried numbers of murder cases; that it was always customary to see the prisoner before lawyers were engaged, and cited many instances where this had been done.

Mr. Mackey said that he would get requisition papers for Wright, who would be tried by a jury of Virginians. They would only have to be given a woman's word that Wright was the man who had assaulted her in order to convince them, Mr. Mackey said.

Miss Ristey went to the jail again yesterday, accompanied by Capt. Matthews, of the Fourth precinct. Wright was ordered to walk by her, and she positively identified him as the man who had assaulted her. As she left the building Miss Ristey said: "There is not the slightest doubt in my mind that Wright is the man for whom the authorities had been looking."

Wright is still in jail in Washington, and the county authorities are preparing extradition papers in order that Wright may be removed to Virginia. It is supposed that several days will have elapsed before he will be taken to the county jail.

To Make an Investigation.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has made a thorough investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death of Engineer Hugh Murphy, of the Southern Railway, who was slowly scalded to death while pinned underneath his locomotive, two weeks ago, at Sixth street and Maryland avenue, southwest Washington. It is said that more than twenty witnesses have been secured who would testify that the life of the engineer might have been saved had it not been for the arbitrary action of the police. It is also said that the statements of the witnesses have been placed in the hands of Attorney Charles Bendheim, of this city, who will go before the Commissioners of the District of Columbia either to-day or to-morrow and ask for a searching investigation of the action of the police. The railroad men allege that instead of allowing them to assist in the rescue work, they were driven back by the police. They claim that Murphy was pinned underneath the cab of the locomotive and could have been released with the use of "jacks" about thirty minutes sooner than he was freed, and that his life might have been saved. Capt. Matthews, who was in charge of the police, says that every possible thing was done in Murphy's behalf. He maintains that the engineer was pinned underneath the boiler of the engine and not beneath the cab, and that he "could not possibly have been rescued any earlier than he was extricated."

Luna Park Attractions.

The Galiani Operatic Trio, late of the Conreid Metropolitan Opera Company, appeared at Luna Park last night, to the delight of the large crowd assembled at that place. An audience that completely taxed the seating capacity in front of the musical shell had gathered long before the time for the singers to appear. Although but four selections were sung, each was in itself a vocal triumph. Another entertaining feature last night was the singing of the Metropolitan Male Quartette, of Washington. The Operatic Trio will appear each afternoon and evening throughout this week.

Next Monday will be "Southern Day" at Luna Park, and a large part of the receipts of the park as well as of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Company will be turned over to the women who are endeavoring to raise funds to lift the mortgage on Lee Camp Hall, in this city. The management of the park will donate the gate receipts and each ticket will entitle the holder to a ride on the "circle swing" and a free admission to the "tours of the world." The committee will receive one-half of the price of every ticket sold on that day from Alexandria to Luna Park and one-third on similar tickets sold in Washington.

The park will close the night of October 3rd.

Forfeited His Collateral.

A man giving his name as John Biddle, and who said he was from Washington, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Special Policeman Robey of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway and Policeman Roberts on the charge of creating a disturbance on one of the cars of the company. Conductor N. Davis preferred the charge against the man. He stated that the man boarded the car, which was attached to a special train, and pulled the bell rope to stop it several times. He was released by Chief Goods upon $20 collateral for his appearance in the Police Court this morning. He could not be found when the case was called and forfeited his collateral.

Large Catfish.

Henry Murray yesterday caught a catfish from one of the city wharves that weighed between 8 and 9 pounds. He caught several other specimens measuring a foot in length. They were of the Mississippi river variety. These fish are becoming plentiful in the Potomac. Black bass are still affording anglers considerable sport.

Personal.

Mr. Samuel Schwartz, of Washington, is spending several days in Alexandria as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bendheim.

Miss Albert D. Brackett is visiting friends in Pittsburgh. Miss Mamie Agnew, who has been the guest of Miss Mary Berkeley, of Leesburg, has returned to her home in this city.

Mrs. J. F. Faulkner, of Boston, is spending a few days with friends in this city.

Mrs. Samuel L. Monroe has returned from The Plains, where she has been the guest of Mrs. Maury.

Mrs. Lawrence Washington is visiting Mrs. Beverley Tucker at her home in Norfolk.

Miss Rose Barley is the guest of Mrs. Clarence C. Leadbeater at her home, 414 north Washington street.

Miss Louisa Smoot is the guest of Miss Waite, in Calpeper.

Mrs. Julian T. Burke has returned from the White Sulphur Springs, where she spent the past month.

Mr. R. P. W. Garnett has returned from a trip to Richmond and Fredericksburg.

Mr. Mahlon H. Janney has returned from his vacation, which he spent in Pennsylvania and the mountains of Virginia.

Mr. Leonard J. Miller, son of Mr. J. R. Miller, of this city, has been transferred from the office of the general superintendent of the Chicago, Rock Island and Gulf Railroad, at Fort Worth, Texas, to the office of the superintendent of transportation of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, La Salle street station, Chicago, Ill.

The many friends of Mr. Miller in this city and Chicago are glad to hear of his transfer.

Miss Ethel Grimes has returned from a visit to friends in Flushing, Long Island.

Friends in this city of Miss Eleanor Fox, of Philadelphia, a frequent visitor here, have received invitations to her marriage, October 10, to Mr. James E. Gibson, of the same city.

Fined and Imprisoned.

William Robertson was arrested yesterday by Chief Goods and Policemen Garvey and Arrington on suspicion of selling liquor on Sunday and without a license. Robertson lives in the southwestern section of the city. He was brought before Justice Caton in the Police Court this morning when the evidence showed that he had sold liquor. Several bottles of whisky which had been found in the place were exhibited and the officers testified that empty beer bottles, etc., gave evidence that an illegal business had been conducted by Robertson. He was fined $50 and given 60 days in jail.

Locomotive Whistles.

Considerable complaint is made by people living in the southeastern section of the city of the blowing of locomotive whistles on Wilkes street during the night. On Saturday, sometime during the "wee sma' hours," the shrieking of an engine whistle as it was entering the western end of the tunnel startled people and scared children. There was considerable whistle-blowing in and out of the tunnel last night. Such procedures are unlawful and should be stopped at once. The moving of trains throughout the night is a great annoyance to people living near the tracks and the sounding of the locomotive whistles adds to the discomfort.

W. C. T. U.

The opening service of the 24th Convention of the Virginia W. C. T. U. will be held in the Baptist Church tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Tomorrow night will be county jubilee and welcome night. Addresses will be made by Mayor Pafl, Mr. Lewis Machen, Col. Kemper, Rev. Mr. Phillips, Mrs. K. W. Barrett and others. On Wednesday night a grand gold medal contest will be held. At this service a silver offering will be taken at the door. Mrs. Stevens and Miss Gordon will deliver addresses. Two business sessions will be held daily beginning with Tuesday morning.

Griffin Indicted.

At a special term of the grand jury for Culpeper county, called by Judge D. A. Grimes, George Griffin, the colored man who a few days ago made the attempt to criminally assault Miss Gerald Covington, was indicted Saturday for the crime. The judge also ordered a special term of his court to try the case for the first Monday in October. The man is in jail in this city for safekeeping. There is considerable excitement in the neighborhood of the outrage.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Virginia Brengle, whose death occurred at an early hour Saturday morning, took place from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Eleanor F. Lyles, 1213 King street, yesterday afternoon, and was attended by relatives and friends of the family. The services were conducted by Rev. Father Kelly, assistant rector of St. Mary's Church, and the interment was in the Methodist Protestant cemetery.

Sent on to the Grand Jury.

Officers Young, Lyles, Garvey and Gill yesterday arrested a negro named Jack Smith who is alleged to have stolen a gold watch and scrip from the residence of Smith Beck, in the northwestern section of the city, on the night of Monday, November 27, 1905. He was brought before the Police Court this morning and sent on to the grand jury by Justice Caton.

Held Up.

A resident of north St. Asaph street was held up by two men on that thoroughfare, between Cameron and Queen, last night. The footpads caught hold of the arms of their intended victim when the latter knocked one of the men in the gutter. His companion took to his heels and made his escape.

Torture By Savages.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering endured for three months from inflammation of the kidneys," says W. M. Sherman, of Cashmere, Me. "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders and Malaria; and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater, R. Sons' druggist, Price 50c.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Riddle, arrested by Officer Roberts and Special Officer Robey, charged with disorderly conduct on an electric train, forfeited $50 by failing to appear.

Ann Russell, white, and Geo. Ford, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $5 each.

Willam Brent, colored, arrested by Officers Knight and Ferguson, charged with assaulting Daisy Williams, was dismissed, the complainant failing to appear.

Walter Clark, colored, arrested by Officers Bell, Jones and Garvey, charged with assaulting Annie Freeman, was fined $5.

Mary Thomas, colored, who had sworn out a warrant against Henry Tysman, charging him with assault, was allowed to withdraw the warrant upon the payment of $2.50.

William Miller, arrested by Officers Bettis and Nicholson, charged with assaulting Mary Nicholson with a knife, was dismissed, the plaintiff refusing to prosecute the accused.

William Robertson, arrested by Chief Goods and Officers Garvey, Arrington and Beach, charged with selling liquor without a license, was fined $50 or given sixty days in jail.

Jack Smith, colored, arrested by Officers Young, Lyles, Garvey and Gill, charged with stealing a watch and a scarf from Smith Beck, was sent on to the grand jury.

Several residents of Queen street, between Alfred and Columbus, had been cited to appear and answer the charge of failing to connect their premises with the sewer. They were all dismissed.

Prospective Bridegroom Dismissed.

Among the cases before the Police Court this morning was that of a negro named William Miller, who had been arrested at the instance of Mary Nicholson, also colored, who charged him with assaulting her with a knife. The assault occurred six weeks ago at which time the warrant was sworn out, but Miller had eluded the police until yesterday when he was taken into custody. The Nicholson woman in her statement this morning showed a disposition to suppress as much as possible the facts in the case, and among other things said she was sorry the assault occurred, as she and Miller were to have been married next Wednesday. Miller acknowledged that such was the case and the prospective bridegroom was dismissed.

Dangerous Play.

Walter Clark, colored, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Annie Freeman, colored, who averred that Clark had assaulted and beaten her and compelled her to jump from the second story window of their home in the north-eastern section of the city. Her face gave evidence of the truth of her statements. Clark was brought before the Police Court this morning when in defense he stated that he was merely playing with the woman. Justice Caton fined him $5 for engaging in diversions dangerous to himself and others, the penalty provided in such cases by a city ordinance.

Grand Gold Medal Contest.

Probably the most interesting session to outsiders of the W. C. T. U. convention convening at the Baptist Church in this city tonight, will be that of Wednesday night. Six young ladies representing as many different parts of the State who have previously won both silver and gold medals will compete in an oratorical contest for a grand gold medal. No admittance fee will be charged but a silver offering will be taken. The programme will be interspersed with musical selections and those who attend will be assured of both a musical and elocutionary treat.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Luther Carter, real estate agent, has sold for Mrs. Martin house No. 409 south Lee street, to Mr. T. A. Groves.

John Morgan was arrested today for being drunk and disorderly on the street and was locked up for a hearing to-morrow.

The will of the late Patrick Foley was admitted to probate today. The deceased left his small estate to his grandchildren, the children of the late John Reese.

John Evans, a youth living on south Fairfax street, had one of his fingers seriously mangled in cogwheels on a pile driver at the foot of Wilkes street yesterday.

The Clerk of the City School Board today issued 26 additional permits to children to attend the public schools—6 to white boys, 7 to white girls, 7 to colored boys and 6 to colored girls.

A horse being driven by Mrs. C. C. Leadbeater became frightened near the union station yesterday, and running off smashed the carriage to which he was attached. Mrs. Leadbeater escaped unhurt.

Rev. John Ambler, a returned missionary from Japan, preached at Christ Church yesterday and gave an interesting discourse upon the similarity and dissimilarity of the Jewish and Japanese races.

A carrier pigeon flew into the office of U. S. Commissioner R. W. P. Garnett in the postoffice building today. On one leg was a ring on which the figures "44486" were inscribed, and on the other "E. Z."

The announcement made in the Baptist Church last Sunday evening that members of St. Paul's Church choir would take charge of the music Tuesday evening was a mistake. Miss M. Blanche Rotchford and Miss Hancock will sing on that occasion.

The weather was uncomfortably warm for the most part of yesterday. In the afternoon there was a copious shower of rain which lowered the temperature somewhat, and when night had set in the weather became still more pleasant. Comfortable conditions prevailed this morning, the mercury in the thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning standing at 66°. At 3 o'clock this afternoon it was at 74°.
